
CONTENT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES – MARCH 2018PUBLICATION

The EMS Director™ is a quarterly-printed publication offered as a consulting solution to the subscribing audience and identified industry stakeholder population of Emergency Medical Solutions, LLC (EMS, LLC).

CRITERIA

Submission of content, including articles and/or images/pictures, does not guarantee use for publication by EMS, LLC. If such submitted content is considered for use, EMS, LLC reserves the right to edit such content to fit the specifications of the printed publication and editing standards. After submitted to EMS, LLC, any revised content or edits may be submitted back to the submitting party for review. Due to printing timelines, however, this may not always be possible.

Submitted content should be emailed to EMS, LLC (insight@emergencymedicalsolutionsllc.com) and meet the following criteria:

- Microsoft Word document
- Single-space after periods (preferred)
- Include a working title and/or subtitle (it is not guaranteed that the submitted title is used)
- Images/pictures may be sent either as their own item, or within a Word document for retrieval
- No current word count restrictions are in place (but it is preferred that the typed content fill at least one entire page)

COPYRIGHTS

By submitting an article or any other content for publication, the submitting party agrees that the content provided is wholly owned and is the content property of their individual self or company of representation. The submitting party agrees for EMS, LLC to print this content for the purpose of distribution to its own clients. EMS, LLC maintains copyrights over the final printed publication (EMS Director™), while the submitting party maintains copyrights over the originally-submitted content and may offer it for print in other publications and professional trade journals at his/her/their own discretion.

EMS, LLC holds no liability or responsibility if the submitting party knowingly or un-knowingly violates any prior copyright commitments or regulations in regards to his/her/their submitted content. It is the responsibility of the submitting party to follow applicable copyright, trademark, and/or reference/citation criteria related to the submitted content.

PURCHASE & PAYMENT

As of March 2018, EMS, LLC is not in a position to offer payment for purchase to the rights to utilize & print submitted content. In exchange for such content, EMS, LLC is agreeing to offer the submitting party a printed copy of the current issue that the submitted content is printed in. Additional independent agreements may be negotiated.

AFFIRM

By submitting content for print & publication in the EMS Director™ (for use by EMS, LLC), you are agreeing to the aforementioned criteria.

Additional questions can be referred to:

- insight@emergencymedicalsolutionsllc.com
- www.emsdirector.com www.emergencymedicalsolutionsllc.com